

Pictures
With Prize Poetry

are coming in at the rate
of two or three a minute;
fair specimens of them
on page 4.

FAIR
Faster
more exact

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

AFFAIRS AT HAWAII.

Editor Sheldon Arrested for an Attack on the New Government.

Project to Restore the Queen to Her Palace Discovered.

Three American Ships in Port and No Fear of an Outbreak.

SAN FRANCISCO. March 7.—The bark Carrier Dove arrived here from Honolulu at 10 o'clock last night and brings the following letter, which conveys the latest intelligence from the islands:

HONOLULU, Feb. 16.—As the work of the Provisional Government progresses, the difference between the old and the new regimes becomes apparent and gives more satisfaction to the American residents here.

No outbreak of any kind has occurred, though it lacks but little of the appearance of one. The time of things was overthrown. At the barracks everything is in good order and ready for any emergency.

The American vessels in the harbor are the Mohican, which is used by Admiral Skeritt as a temporary flagship; the Boston, which still remains; the steamer of the Consul, Col. Weller, and the Alliance, which arrived to-day. Admiral Skeritt, in an interview, stated that it was something of a surprise to him that the stars and stripes were flying over the Government building on the arrival of the Mohican here.

Col. Weller, United States Minister Stevens, said: "Who informed me of the circumstances, and I can say I was glad to see the flag up."

With a few exceptions, the white population of the island take the American side.

The Admiral declined to state what orders he had received from Washington, but it is understood that they are very full and explicit. He had heard a rumor that the German squadron, consisting of the Albatross, the Lutwaffe, and the Clio, or Aquilon, might proceed to Honolulu, but saw no reason for their doing so.

There is a growing prospect for trouble in any power growing out of the situation here, and especially none with Germany, whose interests are amply represented by the German representatives and American officials.

Capt. Gordon, now commanding the barracks, said to-day that while there was no cause to suppose that Hawaiians could be incited, it was not because they lacked in bravery, but rather that the people did not understand the language.

"I don't mind telling you," he said, "that on Sunday last I learned that there was a plot to burn down the U.S. Consulate, as she still is called, to-morrow to the palace. I did not understand that this would mean much to the native mind. It would mean, in fact, an assault on our country."

On Monday morning I issued the order that if Mrs. Dominius, the deposed Queen, attempted to enter the palace gates without permission, she was to refuse her admission, and if further entry was attempted, to resist it, and the guard would be there in double-strength.

On Monday the rumors were repeated and I reported what I had done to Col. Soper, and Private Doole, who appeared to me to be sincere in their same order every morning. No attempt has yet been made by Mrs. Dominius to enter the palace, and she remains quietly at her residence.

Minister Stevens says that the annexation of the islands was the only logical step in the affairs of the country. The Minister expressed the view that the sentiment of the United States is now practically a unit in favor of annexation, and that the question between the incoming and outgoing Administrations as to how the Government should act.

Mr. Stevens said that the islands are the most promising in Cuba and other islands that they will support the cause of the United States. The contract labor system must meet some attention, but with the experience of the present contracts that difficulty would be practically solved.

The local papers are full of articles bearing on the topic of annexation. Several strong articles have appeared and yesterday John Sheldon, one of the editors of the Star, was arrested and was posted on the charge of contempt of the legislative Council because of publishing in his paper an attack upon the Provisional Government.

ADA REHAN IN BUTTER.

A Novel Status to Be Shown at the Food Exposition.

The figure of Ada Rehan, which has been done in silver by the State of Montana for exhibition at the World's Fair, will appear, full size, modelled in butter, for the deletion of New Yorkers at the Food and Health Exposition, which is to open to-morrow under the auspices of the New York Retail Grocers' Union at the Lyceum, Madison Avenue and Perry-Sixth street.

The exhibition will open every day, except Sundays, between 1 P. M. and 10:30 P. M. until May 1.

THE JARIS IS NOW A YANKEE.

Miss Glacom hoisted the Stars and Stripes at noon To-day.

The Stars and Stripes were raised over the steamer of the steamship Paris, of the New America line, at noon today by Miss Francis, Griscom, daughter of the President of the International Steamship company.

The flag was raised while the vessel was being at anchor.

Only a few persons, guests of the company, were present.

They were served with a collation later in the dining-room of the steamship.

The flag is in ceremony on the occasion of the rechristening of the steamship, the New York, recently bought in this instance.

Young & Son's Arms Licorice Pellets, Bonbonettes are now incomplete without them. *

THE EVENING EDITION WORLD.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 1893.

A Help To House Hunting.

Every Sunday The World contains a list of unoccupied houses and flats compiled from World Wants.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE WORLD ALMANAC WILL TELL YOU ABOUT IT.

POINTERS ON THE RACES. WILES IN THE GENUS FAKIR. IT IS AN EAST SIDE TANGLE. ANOTHER EFFORT FOR HARRIS. ANNUAL BASEBALL MEETING. UNCLE SAM AS A BANKRUPT.

Guttenburg's Crack Event To Day Is the Fifth.

The Card is Good All Through—Morning Betting.

Schatchen, Lovers and a $25 Check All Mixed Up.

Helen Potts's Schoolmate Swears the Girl Ate Morphine.

Kelly Must Play in New York or Stay with the Bostons.

Startling Declarations as to the Condition of the Treasury.

No Gold Coming In—Expenditures Must Be Tremendously Reduced.

Coal Gathred in the Fifth Avenue Hotel Corridors.

EXTRA.
2 O'CLOCK.

BLEW OPEN THE SAFE.

Crackmen Visit Leavy & Britton's Brewery, in Brooklyn.

They Only Secured $600 for All Their Trouble.

The Well-Planned Job Done During the Watchman's Absence.

Suds-wreckers visited Leavy & Britton's ale brewery, 165 Front street, Brooklyn, early this morning, and after breaking open the iron doors of the safe stole $600 and escaped.

The thieves were evidently well acquainted with the manner of looking after the building at night and laid their plans carefully in advance.

Walter Hickey, was wakened at eight until midnight. Before leaving the building he made a tour of the premises and found everything all right. He then locked the doors and went home. At 5 o'clock he returned to the brewery, took a walk around, and again locked the doors and lay down.

The magnates had to make do with a simple meal, but the robbers had a sumptuous dinner, including a bottle of claret, a bottle of beer, and a bottle of whisky.

The early specie business is to be an absolute necessity, and it will now require probably double the number of bonds to cover our strained credits in the meantime, and we shall have to make some sacrifices.

The administration has done its best to save the country, and we must hope to see that the League will be willing to release funds to meet our needs.

It is impossible that the League will be held responsible for the damage to the country.

The administration and the people of the country must accept the appalling condition as it is and if it is best they can, one of two things must be done and done speedily: we must either reduce our expenditures from $100,000,000 to $60,000,000 by pension revision and retirement generally, or we must levy additional taxes upon the people to that extent.

Conversely, we must increase our revenues by increasing our taxes.

It is certain that the doors of the building will be closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors open, he saw that the thieves had broken in.

He then saw in the office during his absence, the drawers in the safe had been broken and the contents scattered.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.

He then saw that the safe last night was closed, and appeared at first glance to be as he left it at midnight, but as soon as Hickey grasped the handle and pulled the heavy doors

open, he saw that the safe had been broken in.